

Kiberick Cove

- Description: Kiberick Cove is a small cove on the South Cornwall coast in Veryan Bay. The beach is rocky with a narrow strip of sand at the north part of the beach, with more sand exposed at low tide. There is a steep climb down to the beach.
- Safety: No details available.
- Access: From the car park there is path across fields down to the cove. Final access to the beach is via a steep path.
- Dogs: Dogs allowed all year.
- Directions: Kiberick Cove is about 13 miles from Truro. Approaching from the east or west on the A390 about 4 miles east of Truro turn onto the A3078 for St Mawes. Continue on the A3078 past Tregony and Ruan High Lanes and then turn left for Veryan (signposted to Veryan). At Veryan at a cross roads go straight across (signposted to Carne and Portloe), then turn right and follow this road out of Veryan. Follow this road for several miles, then turn right at a junction. Then take the next left where signposted to Nare Head. Then follow this lane to a small car park above Kiberick Cove. Opposite the car park is a gate allowing access to a path down to Kiberick Cove.
- Postcode: TR2 5PQ.
- Parking: 1 small car park above Kiberick Cove.
- Toilets: No
- Facilities: None
- Activities: None

www.cornwallbeachguide.co.uk

Cornwall Beach Guide