

Trevone Bay

- Description:Trevone Bay is a pleasant sandy bay which is popular with families and surfers. A few minutes walking to the west of Trevone Bay is another large beach called Rocky Beach. Rocky Beach is mainly rocky but there is also a small patch of sand and a tidal pool. There is excellent scenery and good coastal walks from Trevone Bay to Harlyn Bay and Trevoese Head.
- Safety:Signs warn of strong undercurrents, do not swim or bodyboard on right hand side of beach, do not use inflatables and there is a risk of rock falls. Also risk of getting cut off by tides. Lifeguards in summer at Trevone Bay.
- Access:From the car park by the beach shop there are steps to the beach. From the field car park there is a sloping road (suitable for wheel chairs) down to the road by the beach where there is level access to the beach.
- Dogs:Dogs are banned on Trevone Bay Beach from 15th May to 30th September (10am to 6pm).
- Directions:Trevone Bay is approximately 9 miles from Wadebridge. Take the A39 west from Wadebridge or the A39 from the Highgate Hill roundabout (on the A30 near Indian Queens). If travelling from the Wadebridge direction, about 3 miles west of Wadebridge turn right onto the A389 (signposted to Padstow). Continue on the A389 and about a mile after Little Petherick at a junction turn right to continue on the A389 to Padstow. If travelling from the A30, turn north onto the A39 at the Highgate Hill roundabout and continue north on the A39 until the Winnards Perch roundabout and here turn left onto the B3274 (signposted to Padstow). Continue on this road which becomes the A389 and continue on this road to Padstow. Approaching Padstow turn left onto the B3276 (signposted to Harlyn Bay and Trevone). Continue on the B3276 for several miles and then turn right where signposted to Trevone Bay. Follow this road down to the Trevone Bay Beach car parks.
