

Polperro

- Description: Polperro is a picturesque working fishing village with a small sandy beach beyond the harbour wall. There is also a tidal pool below the cliffs. In Polperro village there is much to see and there are plenty of gift shops and cafés
- Safety: No details available
- Access: There is a long walk from the car park to the village, but in summer there is a horse bus service and electric mini bus service. There are steep steps to the beach and very steep steps to the tidal pool
- Dogs: Dogs allowed on the beach all year, but must be on leads between 10am and 6pm
- Directions: Polperro is 5 miles from Looe and 24 miles from Plymouth. Take the A38 from Plymouth. At Trerulefoot turn left onto the A374. After approximately 1 mile turn left onto the A387 for Looe. At Looe cross the bridge and continue on the A387 to Polperro
- Parking: 1 large car park on the approach to Polperro village. There is no parking in the village
- Toilets: Yes
- Facilities: Cafés, gift shops, museum in Polperro
- Activities: Boat trips from Polperro

www.cornwallbeachguide.co.uk

Cornwall Beach Guide