

Cape Cornwall

- Description: At Cape Cornwall there is a small cove called Priests Cove with a pebble beach and lots of rock pools. There is also a small tidal pool. It's definitely worth climbing the footpath up to the Cape for spectacular views.
- Safety: No details available.
- Access: From the car park there is a sloping road and path with steps (not suitable for wheel chairs) to reach the slipway to the beach.
- Dogs: Dogs banned from Easter Sunday to 30 September.
- Directions: Cape Cornwall is approximately 9 miles from Penzance. Follow the A30 around the outskirts of Penzance then turn right onto the A3071 for St Just and follow this road to St Just. At St Just turn left for Cape Cornwall (signposted to Cape Cornwall). Then follow this road for several miles to Cape Cornwall.
